

Typical Day

Morning:

On the islands our base is the guesthouse, where we meet each morning for breakfast. Morning is reserved for the main activities.

Lunch:

We stop at typical local taverns and restaurants. The food is delicious and the prices reasonable. There is also grocery store where one can buy a sandwich as well as small market with local fruit and vegetables.

Afternoon:

After lunch we usually take the siesta, since it is the hottest part of the day. Then you can swim or simply sit in a shade and enjoy your afternoon coffee. After siesta, we continue with the activities.

Late afternoon:

We return to the guesthouse. There is usually some time between our return from the activities and dinner so you can relax in your room.

Evening:

We dine in a cozy local restaurant. Two dinners are included in price. You can enjoy typical Mediterranean specialties, seafood, meat, fresh vegetables seasoned with olive oil. Vegetarian food is available as well. Ice cream on Lopud is a must.

Accommodation:

Private guesthouse on the islands are licensed and approved for tourists. Rooms are typically shared, with two people per room. Rooms are simple, comfortable, and clean, with private bathroom, bed linens, and towels. Guesthouses are conveniently located. Everything is within walking distance. Hotel
